Volunteer

Volunteering abroad is a great way to expand your horizons, learn about new cultures and make a valuable contribution in a foreign community.

Boasting 11 official languages, 8 UNESCO World Heritage Sites and 70% of the Cape Floral Kingdom's plant species found nowhere else in the world, volunteering in South Africa offers an amazing opportunity to get up close and personal with the "Rainbow Nation" and make a lasting impact.

Gathering together on an evening

Work at the College Campus during the day, you would be involved with maintenance work on the property, assisting on the grounds, building and developing the site to be a display of life and hope to the surrounding communities. There are allocated rest days where you can go and explore.

Volunteer with the local community

As a volunteer you will also be involved with working alongside the local townships and local schools to help bring hope for a nation.

Explore

Alongside your evenings and weekends, there will be allocated rest days where you will have the opportunity to explore the surrounding areas.

Table mountain, Cape Town

Evenings

You would be free to choose, either to rest, involve in small groups with local people or explore the local environment, with its beautiful beaches and mountains.

Weekends

This would be the time to explore further and visit Cape Town, with its world heritage Table Mountain, visit local markets or embark on a short safari
